Conditions for endorsements of credit limits via email

Conditions

The Insured may receive endorsements in respect of credit limits from Euler Hermes electronically via email. For such endorsements the following conditions shall apply

- Endorsements shall be sent by Euler Hermes to the email address specified by the Insured. The notifications should be sent to a group company email address and not to a personal address.
- An endorsement shall be deemed to have been received by the Insured the same day it was sent from Euler Hermes.
- Euler Hermes shall not be liable for damage sustained by the Insured due to defects in its own computer and communication equipment, software or Internet service.
- Request for change of an email address or request for cessation of receiving endorsements via email, must be notified in writing to Euler Hermes. Euler Hermes has a period of two weeks for handling any such request.
